HERE IS A REAL BARGAIN FOR YOU IN CHOICE IRIS ! ! !

It is one of the most unusual offers I have ever made, consisting of five groups of extra choice varieties that follow each other in bloom, giving an unusually long flowering season from spring to fall.

5 SUCCESSIVE BLOOMING MINIATURE GEMS-- including Sound Money, rich yellow, which flowers twice a year, early spring and fall; Curiosity, one of the most fragrant, as well as one of the quaintest colored Iris grown, a green and violet blend; Mons. Steichen, a porcelain-like white, with wine red zone; Fairy, a lovely soft sky blue; and Negus, rich purple.

5 POGOCYCLUS HYBRIDS--As different from other Iris as though they were from another planet, including Wm. Mohr, highest rated of all; Dorak, rich violet bicolor; Lady Lilford, darkest of all; Zwanenburg, silky textured old gold, splashed maroon; Ib-Pall, huge, ruffled lilac and violet beauty.

5 EARLY ARISTOCRATS--flowering two weeks ahead of other Tall Bearded Iris; Ammon, beautiful early sky blue; Cosette, best early white; Carnelian, best early red; Golden Bow, best early yellow, much like California Gold; Kochinette, best early rich purple.

5 TALL BEARDED IRIS--following the above groups in bloom, including Thais, extra fine pink; Talisman, colors of the world famous Talisman rose; Ronda, a real Five-Star red tone; Guyasuta, finest purple, and Mary Geddes, recent Dykes Medal winner.

5 AUTUMN FLOWERING IRIS--Flower in May and again in Autumn, thus completing the summer's bloom, including Super Autumn King, a fine blue-purple; Black Magic, intense deep blue-violet and finest of all fall bloomers; September Skies, brilliant purple; Ultra, ultramarine blue and violet bicolor; White Autumn King, pure snowy white.

THE HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES

It is the duty of every citizen to know the history of his country. This book is written for the purpose of giving a concise and accurate account of the events which have shaped the United States from its first settlement to the present day.

THE EARLY SETTLEMENTS

The first settlers of the United States were the Pilgrims, who came to the New World in 1620. They were followed by the Puritans, who came in 1630. The Spanish and French also had colonies in the New World. The British colonies were founded in 1607. The first settlement was Jamestown, Virginia. It was founded by Captain John Smith. The first settlement in the North was Plymouth, Massachusetts. It was founded by the Pilgrims.

The British colonies grew in number and size. They were at first dependent on England for their supplies. But as they grew, they began to demand more independence. They wanted to elect their own representatives to the legislature. They wanted to have the right to trade with whom they pleased. They wanted to have the right to tax themselves.

The British government refused to grant these demands. It insisted that the colonies should be dependent on it. It insisted that the colonies should trade only with England. It insisted that the colonies should be taxed by the British Parliament. The colonies refused to accept these conditions. They declared their independence in 1776.

The American Revolution was fought between the colonies and the British. The colonies won the war. They became an independent nation. The British government recognized the independence of the United States in 1783. The United States then began to build a new government. It adopted the Constitution in 1787. It elected George Washington as its first president.

The United States grew in size and power. It acquired new territory from France in 1803. It acquired new territory from Mexico in 1848. It became a world power in the mid-19th century. It fought the Civil War in 1861-1865. It won the war. It became a world power in the late 19th century. It fought the Spanish-American War in 1898. It won the war. It became a world power in the early 20th century.

The United States has been a world power ever since. It has fought many wars. It has won many wars. It has been a world power in the mid-20th century. It fought the Korean War in 1950-1953. It won the war. It became a world power in the late 20th century. It fought the Vietnam War in 1955-1975. It won the war. It became a world power in the early 21st century.
